

Journey to Change

“The South”

United States Civil Rights Movement

Tour sites that figure prominently in the history of the United States Civil Rights movement in the South. During this nine-day course, you will visit historic sites, museums, centers, and tour towns in Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, and Tennessee. This guided tour provides opportunities for learning about the people and events that began and continue the struggle for freedom and equality in the United States of America. Participants will also have the opportunity to hear from many Civil Rights era “veterans”.

Tour highlights include: Martin Luther King National Museum, Apex Museum, George Washington Carver Museum, Tuskegee Airman Museum, Tuskegee University, Rosa Parks Museum, Southern Poverty Law Center, Civil Rights Memorial, Birmingham Civil Rights Institute, Edmund Pettus Bridge, Jackson State University, Mississippi Delta Landmarks, Blues History Museum, BB King Museum, Medgar Evers Home, Fannie Lou Hamer Historic Sites, Emmet Till Landmarks, Freedom Summer Landmarks, Alex Haley Birth Home, Slave Haven Memphis, Civil Rights Museum Memphis
